CURTIS INVITES BREAK WITH KAISER

Seattle, April 15.—"A break with Germany now would be just the thing to awaken us to our helplessness," said Cyrus H. Curtis, publisher of the Saturday Evening Post, and other periodicals, here today.
Curtis is here with Mrs. Curtis, visiting her brother, A. B. Cutter.
"Better break now than after the war," he said, "while Germany is too busy with nine or ten other powers to pay us much attention. This is no time for white paper and ink." Assigning the Mexican trouble to the policies of President Wilson, Curtis said he was sorry he voted for the chief executive.
"I regret to say that I am sorry," he said, "Wilson is in many ways an able man, but in his present position he has been a disappointment."

Washington, April 15.—Representative Rodenburg of Illinois introduced in the house today a resolution directing President Wilson to stop further exportation of arms and ammunition into Mexico.

LOSS OF TRIS SPEAKER WEAKENS WORLD CHAMPIONS

Chicago, April 15.—That the loss of Tris Speaker, erstwhile outfielder of the Boston Red Sox and now a member of the Cleveland Indians, will have a decided effect upon the confidence of the world's champions, was the opinion of Ty Cobb, expressed to the United Press today.

"Every one knows that the Red Sox outfield was the greatest defensive aggregation in history," said Cobb. "Speaker was more than one of this trio. His presence and his ability in covering ground helped the pitchers make good. I can truthfully say that he robbed us of many games by catches that would have been safe without him there. His loss to Boston is immeasurable."

"The American league race, I think, will be the closest in many years. It is a toss up between Detroit, the White Sox and the Red Sox. Our club is greatly improved. Last year it was a coming club—it had many youngsters who were inexperienced. Our pitchers also look better."

When asked whether he would bat as high as Benny Kauff, the Tiger star laughingly said:
"With all good luck, I hope to. He is a good ball player, but fortune has been mighty kind to me so far."
